He will be at Red Springs, Robeson county, to-morrow to deliver an address in connection with the commencement of the Red Springs Seminary, and will return to Raleigh Thursday.

The Haynes Bank, of Henricetta, was chartered to-day, with $25,000 capital, by R. H. Haynes and others. Another charter is for the Agro Farming and Trading Company, of Concord, $5,000 capital, secured by J. S. Harris and others.

Appeal Withdrawn.

The Supreme Court is notified that the appeal in the case of State vs. Tucker, from Asheville, has been withdrawn, presumably in order that an effort may be made to procure from Governor Glenn a commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment. Tucker, a big, black negro, was convicted of criminal assault on a six-year-old child and sentenced to be hanged. The appeal in the case was to have been heard to-day by the Supreme Court.

A letter from Superintendent Wooten, of Columbus county, to State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner is to the effect that Cronly has just voted a local tax for the improvement of schools, and another election is pending, with certainty of success. Three elections since March will add $2,000 to the county school fund. Columbus will receive at least $10,000 this year from special tax, with twenty local tax districts in the county. No county in the State, Superintendent Joyner says, has made as much progress as Columbus.

Superintendent Poole, of Robeson county, writes the State Superintendent that Lumberton has voted a special tax of twenty cents on $100 and sixty cents on poll and a $25,000 bond issue for school improvement.

WHY IT FAILED.

Municipal Ownership Didn't Succeed Because of Politics.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEWBERN, N. C., May 21.—Arrangements have now been completed for the municipal electric lighting plant, after the closing of the failure in municipal service, to a private corporation, and the citizens are now the owners of the plant. It will secure better lighting at a far lower figure than they have been obliged to pay in charges and taxes for maintaining the municipal plant since it was installed.

Judge Wallace Frazer, of this city, who has been at the head of the litigation, says of the failure of the failure to make municipal ownership a success here: "Employees of the plant were men who were not interested in the political faction in power regardless of their ability or knowledge of electricity, and it is not surprising that under such conditions good results could not be obtained. I am convinced that the fundamental cause of municipal ownership failure is the fact that there is no practical business end to a project so operated; that there is lack of system in the financial department, and that seldom is there a practical business man at the head to hold the individual employees responsible for their work."

CUTICURA REMEDIES A PERFECT SUCCESS

"I wish to let you know that I have used one set of Cuticura Remedies—one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura, and two vials of Cuticura Resolvent Pills—which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all. For a year I have had what they call eczema. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, and the more I would scratch, the more it would itch. I tried all kinds of remedies, but could get no relief. A friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies which I did, and am very glad I tried them, for I was completely cured. If any of my friends should be troubled with the same disease, I will cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies, and if I know any one who wants to know how I cured myself, I shall be glad to tell them. FIND YOUNG MAN IN DYING CONDITION

Charles Emory, of Petersburg, May Have Been Terribly Beaten or Had a Fall.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, Va., May 21.—Unconscious, with his head and face badly cut and bruised and near a broken leg, a young man, about 20 years of age, was found lying face downwards by the side of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company's Peninsula Park car line in Dinwiddie county about 4 o'clock this afternoon, and was brought to the Petersburg hospital, where he regained consciousness after treatment, but is unable to give any account of how he was injured. The indications are that he was very drunk, but whether or not he was hurt by falling or not he was in an open question, with no clue to its solution up to 10:30 o'clock to-night. The motorman on an outgoing car saw the man lying beside the track with his head between the wheels near the car, and he was taken to the Petersburg Granite Company, about a mile and a half from the city.

Little Sign of Life.

After turning the apparently lifeless body over the young men found the hair clogged with blood, a big contusion on one side of the head, the forehead bruised and badly cut, and one eye blacked, the only indication of life being a slight movement of the bloody foam on his lips.

Thirty-five cents in cash and an unopened half-pint bottle of whiskey were found on him. The man was placed on an incoming car and brought to the city. Shortly after he was seen by men on a passing car clinging to a telegraph pole near the place where he was picked up. Emory has several brothers here, is married and lives on Farmer Street.
